The world is but a canvas to our imagination. - Henry David Thoreau			The first step is the hardest, so start small today and make something that fits in the palm of your hand using only the materials in your immediate environment. 1	What do you collect? Work with a collection of objects you have in your home (or borrow from a sibling/parent if you'd like) 2	Transform an old book into something new by cutting, folding, gluing, and so on. 3	Take a walk, then make something using whatever materials you find on your journey. Leave it for someone else to discover, but take a picture first! 4
Work underwater. Fill up a large bowl, vase, or old fish tank with water and create something inside of it. 5	Turn today's junk mail into something much more appealing. 6	Be a minimalist. Work only with white materials today. Try working white on white for a real challenge. 7	Connect the dots. Make something only using dots. The dots could be stippling from a pen, the circles cut from paper using a hole punch, or even small, round price stickers. 8	Make something that casts a shadow and document only the shadow. 9	Write a ten-word science fiction story. Bonus: Illustrate it! 10	Work only with numbers today. You could make an image with numbers, make something into number shapes, do something involving a calculator, etc... 11
Create something from candy/ chocolate today (before you eat it!) or the wrappers!! 12	Make a visual pun. For example, a handbag made out of hands. 13	Work with words. Make an image with just words or letters. You can cut them from magazines, draw them yourself or print out words on a computer to work with. 14	Use dry coffee beans, dry or wet coffee grounds or even liquid coffee to create something. 15	Flip to a random page in a book at hand and make something inspired by the first sentence you read. 16	Make something new out of an old t-shirt. It doesn't have to be wearable when it's done. 17	What's your favorite animal? Use it as your inspiration today. 18
Triangulate. ONLY work with triangle shapes today - or make a giant triangle with a bunch of stuff. 19	Pick a piece of music you love (or hate) and use it as your inspiration for today's piece. 20	Make a rubbing by placing paper over rough objects/ surfaces and using a crayon, charcoal, chalk or pencil to pick up the detail. 21	Make something inspired by your favorite movies. 22	Use fingerprints/thumbprints to create an image or portrait. 23	Work only with black and white (or with black and white items) 24	Get Dirty. Use dirt as your medium today. Dirt mixed with water makes great paint!! The more water added the lighter the brown color becomes..so created many shades! 25
Work with rocks available near your home. Paint them, decorate them, put positive messages on them. Leave them around your neighborhood for people to find. 26	Make something inspired from your favorite TV show. 27	Work with rocks available near your home. Paint them, decorate them, put positive messages on them. Leave them around your neighborhood for people to find. 28	What can you do with yarn, string, ribbon or wire today? 29	Use a favorite quote as inspiration today! 30	“creativity is intelligence having FUN” - ALBERT EINSTEIN	For more creative prompts check out: “365: A Daily Creativity Journal” by Noah Scalin
