

Ellyson plumbing in Salem set us this job opportunity for our students. When you have a moment, could you please post this on our website?

This is a description of the position we're looking to fill:

- Hard working, responsible, quick learning, strong, able bodied-person to immediately fill an opening with local plumbing company to make deliveries, pull material, inventory stock, help plumbers in the field. Must be able to lift heavy items, have a valid driver's license, pass pre-employment and random drug screens, 7am to 3:30pm standard working hours with overtime possibilities. Great starting pay with health benefits after probationary period. Paid vacation after 1-year full time employment. Willing to hire high school student looking to have a promising career with a very well-established plumbing contractor. Please send inquiries to ellysonplumbing@neo.rr.com.